Tuesday, May 13, 2014
Aim: What is the structure of the poem "If"?
Learning Targets: I can describe the structure of the poem "If".
Hot Questions: How does the structure of the poem "If" affect your understanding of it?

An "Oscar Wilde Witticism" a Day
"Memory is the diary that we all carry about with us"
Oscar Wilde (1854 - 1900)
Irish dramatist, novelist, and poet

May 12-8:02 AM

Questions to Consider
What is the poem mostly about?
What makes a poem different from a story? Why?
Why is it important to read poetry closely?

May 12-8:03 AM

Homework - Read Chapters 14 and 15 of Bud, Not Buddy. Identify 3 moments in the chapter that show that Bud's life is changing from surviving to thriving. Remember, the novel has been emailed to your 10x80 gmail account. If you forgot your email password, you can also find the book online.

No Excuses!!!!

Apr 7-2:27 PM

Do Now: Write today’s standard in your own words.
6.RL.5 - Explain how an author develops the point of view of the narrator or speaker in a text.

Today’s Learning Tasks:
1. Read the poem “If” by Rudyard Kipling
2. Complete the Graphic Organizer

5 minutes

Exit Pass: Read the following quote from page 172.

“All of a sudden I knew that all of the places in the world I’d ever been in this was the one. That of all the people I’ve ever met these were the ones. This was where I was supposed to be.”

What does Bud mean when he describes the place as "the one" and the people as "the ones"?
Sentence Starter:
Bud means __________ when he describes the place as "the one."
Bud means __________ when he describes the people as "the ones."
Bud

May 12-8:03 AM

Exit Pass: Rate today’s task based on its level of difficulty for you:
1. very difficult
2. somewhat difficult
3. not difficult at all

This task was __________ for me because __________.

Apr 9-1:51 PM
Surviving - staying alive, enduring

Thriving - growing or developing well
Attachments

Updating oscar 001.jpg